iss Miller To

venue Presbyterian Church; Miss Mildred Miller To Be Maid of Honor

S Carpenter Engaged

J. W. Baker Weds Miss Beakin, of Lancashire, Eng., in London To-day

eals have been announced for the of Miss Margaret Winthrop be, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, to Mr. William Doolittle s so of Mrs. and the late Dr. best D. Crim, at the Park Avenue absterian Church next Monday ser, Miss Mildred Miller, as maid of Her bridesmaids will include as Margaret Reid, Miss Louise Mor-Miss Kalo Bright, Miss Elizabeth ryker, Miss Augusta Burke and Miss Crim's best man will be Mr. Mr. Crim's best man will be Mr.

suis T. Stone. The ushers will insuis T. Stone. The ushers will insuis T. Stone. The ushers will insuide Mr. Robert B. Lea, Mr. Edward

Sperry, Mr. John Jay Schieffelin,

Charles H. Ramsey, Mr. Glen A.

these and Mr. Arthur F. McCann.

the cerement will be performed by the

M. Weolsey Stryker, former presist of Hamilton College.

Was Miller is a graduate of Vassar liege of the class of '19. Mr. Crim

a Cornell graduate, class of '16,

a Cornell graduate, class of '16,

a to suit of the track

as affect in the Air Service and

as affect in the Air Service and

as affect in the Air Service and as affect y during the war. He is of Squadron A and the Co of New York. Miss Mill ddaughter of the late Mr. a Augustus Shepard, of Plainfield securce Annapolis Engagement optain and Mrs. Dudley Newcomb optier, who are living at the United in Naval Academy at Annapolic, have announced the engagement this daughter, Miss Sybil Carpenthe Lieutenant Carleton Shugg. Miss of Cornelius Vanderbilt.

s Monica Deakin, of Blawith and ham Park, Lancashire, England, of the Rev. Carrick R. in, of London, will be married Saints' Church, London, to-day it Jefferson Wheeler Baker, of white N. J. Mr. Bakes and the control of the control Mr. Baker and his sill arrive in this country on-tasenia early in October. They get Mr. Baker's parents, Mr. and Charles Whiting Baker, of

In Rabert H. Gamble gave a lunch-ig Sherry's yesterday for Miss of Van R. Lorillard.

Mr and Mrs. Henry H. Wehrhane of at luncheon yesterday at Balmour.

leseph P. Grace also enter-at the Marguery, for Mrs. Ed-had Mrs. James N. Hill enter-ist at lancheon yesterday at the Mariton. Among their guests were a refer G. Gerry and Mr. A. J.

Min who entertained at luncheon is Bitz yesterday were Mrs. Eu-st Reynal and Mrs. Morton L.

and Mrs. James S. Cushman, are been at the Ambassador, nave to Newport.

ters and Luncheons 24 Newport Activities

Mrs. M. Eppley, Mrs.

Burden and Mr. and Mrs.

Rock to-morrow evening, and Mrs. Woodbury Blair will caner at Beach Holm. Mr. and has dapegren have issued instor a dinner Sunday evening. Charles Frederick Hofman and Atmosphysical Rock Hofman and Atmosphysical Rock Hofman and Atmosphysical Rock Hofman and Atmosphysical Rock Hofman Rock Hofman Rock Hoff Charles Frederick Hoffman hish her house with beautiful objects. In the house with beautiful objects, but does not always know how to go about it. Lectures by Professor Fiske Kimball. They plan to go to the leading authorities in the country of the leading authorities in the country on interior decoration, will seems his a few days.

Mrs. William Fitzhugh have fone to New York to William S. Coffin.

Mrs. George Faber Downey Jr.

Mrs. Downey, who was a bride of the early summer, was snapped while walking on Park Avenue yesterday. She was Miss Katherine Van Ingen.

Payne Thompson, an intimate friend.

Mrs. John Clinton Gray, who has been spending the summer at Bar Harbor, will arrive Monday for a stay at the Meunchinger King.

Mrs. Mande Howe Elliott will be the speaker at the Art Association fo-morrow morning. Strictly Observed Throughout City

Air and six Edged Stadiey, whose home in the Thousand Islands was destroyed by fire, have decided to become Newport residents next summer, and are looking over available properties.

Miss Resalie Emmons' has arrived to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Oelrichs at their Kay Street residence.

me to-day. Mr. Paul Flunkett was a Newport arrival to-day, sailing his schooner yacht Enimour. It was announced this evening that the Swedish Minister and Mrs. Axel Wallenberg may be compelled to delay their visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Aspegren until next month.

Miss Ticknor's Wedding Set for October 14

Laurel Hill Association Awards

Exhibit Shows How to Decorate Faultlessly

Art in Trades Club Demonstrates Funnishing of Spacious Apartments

Hew to furnish a $6,000 a year apartment and not make any mistakes FORT, R. I. Sept. 22.—Mrs.

Burden will give a luncheon may to-morrow afternoon at Mrs. and Mrs. Marion flet, which have been repeatedly solved in public, but the more intridute mathematical firms. The morrow afternoon at Rock to-morrow vening, and mission free.

The morrow afternoon at Mrs. Marion flet, which have been repeatedly solved in public, but the more intridute mathematical free.

The morrow afternoon at Mrs. Marion flet, which have been repeatedly solved in public, but the more intridute mathematical free.

The morrow afternoon at Mrs. Marion flet, which have been repeatedly solved in public, but the more intridute mathematical free.

ters pertaining to spacious apartments and country houses, are of concern to the decorators and collectors who are behind the exhibition. They aim to assist the woman who has means to furnish her house with beautiful objects.

w morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley, whose Rabbi Schulman, at Temple Beth-el, Urges Aid to Europe, "by Even Forgiving

Rosh Hashonah, the Hebrew New Year, was ushered in at sundown last Commodore Arthur Curius James on the work and on board of the week end on board his yacht Aloha to-day, and is at gencon Hill ilouse.

Libit, Miss. L. C. M. Aubert, a Willia B. Thompson, Mr. and in Dema Emery and Mr. and Mrs.

Libit, White and Mrs. L. C. M. Aubert, a who is critically ill at his James town residence, remained the grant Verial verse Libit.

practically was at a standstill through-out the city last night, and many of versed by half a vote. out the city last night, and many of

Laurn and Garden Prizes;
Mrs. James Gives Luncheon
Special Cable to The Tribune

Special Cable to The Tribune

Responsible to the special Cable to The Tribune

Special Cable to The Tribune

Special Cable to The Tribune

Responsible to the said:

Bishops Stir Deputies' Iresponsible to the said:

Bishops Stir Deputies' Iresponsible to the said:

Special Coble to The Tribune
STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 22.

but arrivals at the Ritz include I Mrs. Stanhope W. Nixon, Mrs.
Mrs. and Mrs. Benjamin Durant Ticknor, of Great Barrington, issued innor, of Great Barrington, issued inpina to the launching, including her daughter, Senorita Elena de Ospina; the Minister of Colombia and Senora Olayh, and Dr. Jose Maria Arango, Consul General of Colombia in New York.

LLEWELLYN D. LOTHROP BOSTON, Sept. 22.—Llewellyn D. Lothrop, of Gloucester, inventor of a mechanical fog horn in wide use on martime vessels, died at a hospital here to-day. As a ship chandler he was said to have sold more fish hooks than any other man in the world.

Bishops Stir Deputies' Ire At Portland

Put Through Council Ticket While Other House Is Proceeding to Election; Lay Deputy Squelched

Bishop Manning Chosen

Episcopalians Not to JoinFederal Council of Churches of Christ in America

By Rev. Dr. E. C. Chorley PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 22 .- The lection of four clergymen and eight cil of the Protestant Episcopal Church deputy from Uties, N. Y., said: "Pil be hanged if I've ever seen anything so neatly put over on this house." He was sharply called to order by the resident of the house and directed Several additional nominations were made from the floor in an endeavor to smash the tickets offered by the nomi tating committee. The following were eventually elected: Bishops William C Brown, Virginia; Edwin Stevens Lines. o. Newark; William T. Manning, of New York; Theodore Irving Reese, of Southern Ohio; Rev. Drs. James E. Freeman, Washington, D. C.; Alexander Mann, Boston, Mass; W. H. Milton, Wilmington, N. C.; E. M. Stires, New York; Stephen Baker, New York; John York; Stephen Baker, New York; John Stewart Bryan, Richmond, Va., Burton Mannfield, New Haven, Conn.: Samuel Mather, Cleveland, Ohio; Judge Philip Parker, Brookline, Mass.; United States Senator George Wharton Pep-per, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Harper Sib-ley, Rochester, N. Y.; H. C. Wyekoff, Watsonville, Calif.

Manning Succeeds Lawrence place of Bishop William Lawrence and Judge Philip S. Parker is elected in place of Frederic C. Morehouse, of Milwaukee. In addition to these each of the eight provinces is entitled to elect one representative. Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, of Tennessee, is president of the council, and Lewis B. Franklin, of New York, is vice-chair-man.

Debt"; Appeal to Youth Deputies.
Amid considerable excitement the calls utilized for temporary congrega-lons.

Business among Jewish merchants

Chicago, Washington and Maryland de-manded a vote by diocese and orders, this giving one vote each to the clergy and laity of a diocese. In the vote by

Federal Council Proposal Beaten

The Constitution requires a majority f whole votes. Twenty-six votes were eccessary. Twenty-five and a half were next week by the Friedlander Educa-tional Conference, urged every Jewish young man and woman to affiliate with class, club or institution devoted to nebrew activity.

with the school for nearly a half century, joining its faculty in 1875, was born at Warren, R. I., seventy-four years ago. He was graduated from Trinity College, studied medicine at the College of Physicians and Surgeons and practiced this profession several years in New York City. He also was a lecturer on nervous diseases at the Polyclinic Hospital.

At Great South Bay, Long Isiand, Dr. Moore was well known as a duck shooting enthusiast, and in the Catskills he was regarded as one of the most experienced trout fishermen. He had friendly association with many young men who studied under him and are prominent in the business world to-day.

DR. FRANK V. MORGAN

American Museum of Natural History; admission free.

Metropolitan Museum of Art, admission free.
Aquarium: admission free.
Brooklyn Museum, admission free.
New York Historical Society; admission free.
Van Cortlandt Park Museum: admission free.
Zoological Park, admission free.
Hail of Fame at New York University.
University Heights; admission free.
Art exhibit at Art Center, 65 East Piftysixth Street; admission free.
Women's activities exhibit, under the auspices of the Art in Trade Club, Waldorf-Astoria, all day.
Closed Car Show, Grand Central Palace, all day.
Dinner of the Osteopathic Society of the City of New York, Waldorf-Astoria, 6:15 o'clock.

DR. FRANK V. MORGAN
Dr. Frank V. Morgan, sixty-five years old, a retired army officer, living at 504 East 149th Street, died of heart disease albut 10 o'clock last night while attending a meeting of the Ashland Lodge, No. 34, Knights of Pythias, in the lodge hall, 1941 Madison Avenue, Dr. Mayer, of 1933 Madison Avenue, summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was a surgeon in the recovery of the Art center, 65 East Pifty summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was a surgeon in the recovery of the Art center, 65 East Pifty summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was a surgeon in the recovery of the Art center, 65 East Pifty summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was a surgeon in the recovery of the Art center, 65 East Pifty summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was a surgeon in the recovery of the Art center, 65 East Pifty summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was a surgeon in the recovery of the Art center, 65 East Pifty summoned by lodge members, promotes 10 r. Morgan was natured of heart disease about 10 o'clock last night while attending a meeting of the Ashland Lodge, No. 34, Knights of Pythias, in the lodge hall, 1941 Madison Avenue, Dr. Mayer, of 1933 Madison Avenue

Woman Succeeds as Banker Labor Backs

Mrs. C. E. Hearin, of Clay, Ky., is vice-president of the Farmers' National Bank of that place. She will be among the delegates to the bankers' convention here

Woman as Banker Says Sociability Is Dividend Paver

Mrs. C.E. Hearin, Who Aided

Mrs. C. E. Hearin, of Clay, Ky., is coming to the convention of the American Bankers' Association next month in two capacities, that of banker's wife and of vice-president of a bank. She is one of the few women in the country who hold so high a position in the felt that his own individual work would result either in the success or failure. banking world, and she has risen to her of the event. If it hadn't been for that present place after fifteen years of spirit the war would not have ended hard work.

The Protestant Episcopal Church ing, and early in her career announced will not become a constituent member of the federal council of the churches of Christ in America, as a result of the keenest debate and the closest vote of this convention in the Hone of the Churche of the Churche of the Hone of the Churche of the Hone of the Churche of the Hone of the Churche of the Churche of the Churche of the Hone of the Churche of the Churche of the Churche of the Hone of the Churche of the

she feels, used to be timorous about benking.

They trusted the cookie far or the in "first national bank" with treasure, which should have been locked in a vaul.

"Sociability pays greater dividends on the investment than any other capital," she said. "It has been my ambition to make the banking room so comfortable and agreeable that all comers may go away with a sense of gratitude. Possibly no class has has re the outraged feelings of the public so binade against them as bankers. When he morose and disappointed come to our banking houses and we fail to here them up, we have missed our opportusity, while by giving them special attention we might make valued customers in days to come."

Mrs. Hearin has been a bank woman since 1907. The Farmers' National of the separation of t

C. C. Rumsey, Sculptor, To Be Buried in Buffalo Mounta

congregational Polo Player, Killed in Automo-

The body of Charles Carp Ramser, in comparing the merits of a single care was held. If a comparing the merits of a single care was held. If a comparing the merits of the comparing the merits of the

Legion's Aims

American Federation Will Support the Veterans in

Big Welcome for Pershing

Speaker at Syracuse

General Praises Work for dis Boosts for the Bonus L. I. Interment was in the Friends

By Walter J. Fenton

of the Federation were open to the Alfe have workers not already in the Legion the greeting, referred to the reception given him on the streets by Legionnaires who called him "Jack," "Bosa" and "Old Top." He said that so long as he remained here these salutations would be most welcome. He said that he did not come here as the commander-in-chief of the army, but as one interested in the welfare of his former comrades.

"I heaitated in giving up a few days" vacation to come here here but next year.

hard work.

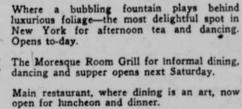

She was one of the original discoverers of the Pollyanna policy in bankher endeavor to make every customer feel at home in the bank, even when asking for a loan. Wemen especially, she feels, used to be timerous about banking.

They trusted the cookie far or the trusted the commander for the success in caring the feels, used to be timerous about banking.

They trusted the cookie far or the trusted the legion with and the legion with a leg

Polo Player, Killed in Automobile Accident, Mourned by Meadow Brook Team
The body of Charles Cary Rumsey, internationally known as a sculptor and polo player, who was killed in an auto-

The ITALIAN GARDEN

The Ambassador Park Avenue and Fifty-first Street THE AMBASSADOR HOTELS SYSTEM

The Ambassador, New York City The Ambassador, Los Angeles The Ambassador, Atlantic City The Alexandria, Los Angeles

Notables at Funeral of Political Field, Says Services Held in St. Bartholo-

Was at Westbury

Funeral services for William Payne Thompson were conducted yesterday in St. Bartholomew's Church, Fiftyfirst Street and Park Avenue, by the Disabled Veterans; Lan- Rev. Dr. Richard D. Pope, of Westbury. Cemetery, Westbury.

The ushers were Harry Payne Whit-

Recial Dispatch to The Tethune
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 22.—As a representative of the American Federation of Labor in this state, Peter Brady, this morning told the state convention of the American Legion that the two organizations should stand shoulder to shoulder. He declared that so long as the Legion had determined to stay out of politics the Federation would aid in the selection of the declared of its legion's friends and the defeat of its and Mrs. William Fitz Hugh Whitency, Payne Whitney, Andrew G. C. Legion's friends and the defeat of its enemies. He announced that the doors ener, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener of the Federation were open to the Legion in its membership drive and that every effort would be made to have workers not already in the Legion. Robert Sedgwick jr., Mrs. Stephen H. Olin, Charles Dana Gibson have workers not already in the Legion enlist at once.

His remarks were greeted by the delegates with applause. He was the first speaker at the morning session. After the gathering had completed some minor business, General John J. Pershing appeared in civilian clothes. For several minutes the convention was in an uproor of welcome.

General Pershing, in acknowledging where John Clinton Gray ir., Austen Mrs. Belmont Ittany, Miss Sary Moy.
Wiborg, John Clinton Gray jr., Austen
Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Paulding Fosdick,
Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander,
Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Maynard,
Wadsworth Lewis, Leonard Jacob,
Ernest Iselin, Mrs. Eugene S. Reynal and Mr. and Mrs. Ogden H. Hammond.

Sir Charles Santley, Singer, Dies in London

Was Prominent for Decades on Operatic, Concert and Oratorio Stages

LONDON, Sept. 22.—Sir Charles Santley, for decades probably the best known and most popular singer on the English concert and oratorio stage, died at his home here yesterday in his eighty-seventh year. He was widely known in America, not only through Americans who heard him frequently in London, but through very through Americans who heard him frequently in London, but through very successful opera and concert tours he made to the United States in 1871 and 1891, when in the prime of his caroer. Santley made his first appearance on the concert stage, except for student performances, in 1897, when he same in England in "The Creation," and his first operatic appearance was in "Dinorsh" at Covent Garden in 1859. He had a long and successful career in opera, but his most marked achievement was as a concert and craterianger, and from the 60s to early in the present century his place on the English oratorio and concert stage was a most important one.

that the Knights of Columbus on November I would turn over to Charles Pope Caldwell, of the Veterans'
Mountain Camp, a certified check for $10,000.

The most important public event of the mos road president. He is survived by his wife and his brother, George H. Ingalls, vice-precident of the New York Central Hairoad. Mr. Ingalls was a member of the University, Harvara, Lawyers' Mid-Day and Downtown clubs. The funeral will be held at 5:30 o'clock The funeral will be held at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of George H. Ingalls, 154 East Ninety-eighth Street. Burial will be in Cincinnati.

EDWARD O. LAMPHIER steen with SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 22.—Edward O. Lamphier, twenty years old, member of the wrestling team of Yale University and a candidate for a Rhodes scholarship, died at his home here to-day of blood poisoning, caused by boils. He was to have been graduated at Yale next June. In 1919 he took highest honors at the Choate School at Wallingford, Conn.

C. C. SHAYNE & CO. Manufacturers of

STRICTLY RELIABLE

FURS

Are Showing the

Extreme Styles of the Season as well as More Conservative Models, Comprising Draped Wraps, Full and Medium Length Coats

126 WEST 42nd ST.: NEW YORK

B&G. ABSOLUTELY PURE FRENCH OLIVE OIL THE WORLD'S

YOUR GROCER HAS IT

E. LA MONTAGNE'S SONS

president of the auxiliary, warned the convention to be careful in its selection of delegates to the national convention because, she said, these will be the women who will shape the policies of the auxiliary.

With Ballots of the auxiliary and the policies of the auxiliary.

Divisional, regimental and various any time up to midnight for interest day's paper.

Telephone Beekman 3000.

MARRIAGES

William Payne Thompson
Services Held in St. Bartholomew's Church; Burial

KILIMAN—CATLIN September 22. by Rev. John Hagnes Holmes, at the Community Church of the Messiah). Park av.
and 24th et., Kenneth Denbow Elliman in Mrs. Clayborne Catlin (nee Grasby).

TAVLOR-ANDREWS At Douglaston, I. I. on Seutember 2d, Ruth Bleaner An Grews and William Taylor.

DEATH3

AMILRONEN On Reptember 20, 1922. Eu-nersayne Borander Ambrosen, wife of Fullip Ambrosen, Funeral services at Der inte residence 457 37th t. Brooklyn on Saturday, September 28, at 2 p. m.

CLARKSON—Van Tuyl, after a lingerius ilicese in his 79th year, beloved son of W. K. and M. Augusta Clarkson, on Thursday, September 21, 1922. Funeral private PITZGERALD-On Tuesday, September 15, 1922, Edward J., at Catakill, N. Y., heloved husband of Julia E. Fitzgerald (nee Enright), father of Patrick, Anna. Rose and Mae Fitzgerald. Funeral from his later residence, 6 Stone at. New York City, on Saturday, September 22, at 16 a. m.; thence to Church of Our Lafty of the Rosary, where requiem mass will be offered for the repose of his seal. Intermed Calvary Cometary. Automobile coriege.

Sunday at 11 a. m.

GENRTNER—At Wehawken, N. J. on Thursday, September 21, 1922, Jeannette Geratner (nee Wellman), beloved wife of William M. Geratner aged 27 years Funeral services will be held on Saturday, September 21, at 8 p. m., at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Christina. Geratner, 17 Hamilton Terrace. Highwood Park, Weehawken, Relatives and friends are respectfully invited, interment Sunday, New York and New Jersey Mausoleum.

HEIM-On September 20, William 7, in belowed son of Mr. and Mrs. William 8 Heim, at their revisiones, 17 man, in the White Plains, N. Y. Paneral services at St. John's Church, White Plains, Sat-urday morning at 3.16, HERNANDEZ Joseph. CAMPBELL, FU-NERAL, CHURCH, Broadway and 66th et. Notice later. HICKEY—At Hethlehem, N. H., Septem-ber 21, Mary A., beloved wife of George W. Hickey, Services at the home of her sister, Mrs. 8, Wood, 275 McDonough st., Brooking, on Monday morning, Septem-ber 25, at 11 o'clock.

Cincinnati, Chio.

JESSUP—At Rowayton, Conn., on Thursday, Sentember 21, 1522, Aon Ca, wife of the late Stephen W. Jessup, Funeral services will be held at the Sound Beach Congregational Church on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Train leaves Grand Contral station 1145 p.m.

KOHM—Suddenly, on Wednesday, Marguerite Akon, belayed wife of Charles Kohm. Funeral from her late residence, 1802 W. 8th, Saturday at 2 p.m.

MORRIS On September 19, 1922, Neille Morris, wife of James A. Morris, Serv-ica at her late residence 1821 Ameterdam av. on Saturday at 2 p. m.

MOORE—Dr. Charles E., at Presbyterian Flospitel, September 27, 1927. Services at Columbia Grammar School, & West fild at, on Saturday, September 23.

MOORE-RESOLUTIONS - Whereas, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to remove from our midst our beloved friend and from our midat our beloved friend and associate.

CHARLES E. MOORE, M. T.

He it Resolved, That we bear testi-mony to his exceptionally high charac-ter and atterling worth, and pay affec-tionate tribute to his memory. tionate tribute to his memory.

For the past forty years, Dr. Charles E. Moore has been an instructor in higher mathematics and the classics in this school. His unswerving faithfulness to his duties is attented by his unsurpassed record of not hawfur faited in a single instance in attendance in the classroom. His integrity, coupled with hindliness and firmness of character, was the foundation of his life's work. He was a rare teacher, an ardent naturalist, a loyal friend and an idealist of the old school, who by precept and example moulded the live of his disciples As a rethuse ta his memory, we describe to record our sentiments and give fitting and they that her wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmnament and they that turn many to righteeusness as the stars forever and ever (Daaler, M. 2).

Columbia Grammar School, FREDERICK A. ALDEN MURRAY.—On September 21, Michael Murray, member of St. Jerome's Holy Name Society, also Whitestons Association Puneral from George F. Lynch's Funeral Perfors, 210 Willis av., on Saturday, September 22, at 2-p. m. Interment Calvary Cometery.

PECK—On Thursday, September 21, 1922, at his residence, 7 West $2d et. Alonzo B. Peck, Funeral services Munday afternom, September 25, at 1 o'clock, Interment Sound Beach, Conn. Chicago and Baltimore papers picase RASMIS—William, on September 21, at Codarhurst, L. L. beloved husband of Stefanic Rasmus, in his 58th year. Puneral aervices at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Timpson, Woodmere, L. on Sunday, at 10 a. m.

REIGHLEY - Frederick G., son of the late Rev Charins Belghley, D. D., on Sep-tember 20, at Sugar Bill, New Hamp-shire. Funeral service on Saturday, Sep-tember 25, at 1 p. m., at St. Matthew. Church, 24 West Eighty-fourth Street. Church, 24 West Eighty-fourth Street.

SEE Mary R. (nee Dunn), beloved wife of Benjamin F. See, mother of Albert L. water E. Ethnor M. Swentzel, Lawiths J. George D. and Mildred W., at her home, 990 Tinton av. Funeral servtices at Disciples Church, 598 East 169th st., on Sunday, September 24, at 2 p. m.
Eastern Star services at the home Sunday morning at 19:20.

WEST-At Elizabeth, N. J. Friday, September 22, 1932, Madelane Sherman, wife of William T. West Jr., and daughter of William E. and Ada Sherman Ress, aged 20 years. Funeral service at the residence of her father, 610 Madison av. Elizabeth, N. J., on Sunday, September 24, at 4 p. m.

WO/ID Ellen Appleton, beloved wife of Chalmers Wood, at Briar Hill, Ipewich, Mass. Friday, September 22. Funeral services on Sunday at 3 o'clock, standard time. in Ascension Memorial Church, Ipswich, Mass.

Ipawich, Mass.

ZIECELMEIER Suddenly, at Watertown,
N. Y., on September 30, 1932, Adele Zingelmeier. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, September 23, at 3
p. m., at August Etckelberg's parlora 324 8th Sv., near 55th st. Interment at convenience of family.

UNDERTAKERS

CEMETERIES

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY